2024 STAGE 3 EXCURSION - TARONGA ZOO

3A, 4S, Support Unit

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

This semester, in Geography, Stage 2 students have been learning about the Earth's Environment.

To consolidate their learning, students have the opportunity to visit the Taronga Zoo.

In this workshop students will examine the climate, vegetation and native animals of Australia and Sumatra. They will learn about the importance of habitats for animals and people and discover the ways people value environments, including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples.

Students will investigate how people can use places and environments in a more sustainable way and how our choices impact these places. The concepts discussed in this workshop can be strongly reinforced when visiting Tiger Trek at Taronga Zoo Sydney.
